

HOAR CROSS HALL AWARDED FIVE BUBBLE LUXURY RATING BY GOOD SPA GUIDE 2022

Hoar Cross Hall, the luxury hotel and spa resort nestled in Staffordshire, has been awarded the Five Bubble Luxury Rating by Good Spa Guide 2022.

The Five Bubble Luxury Rating is the highest accolade awarded by Good Spa Guide. The Rating is only given to properties with 'spectacular facilities, soothing treatments, award-winning cuisine, and flawless customer service'¹, and is judged by a team of spa experts – the Spa Spies!

The Grade II-listed spa retreat was commended for its exceptional setting, moreish food, a wide variety of treatments and exceptional staff. The Spa Spies, as they are called, particularly enjoyed the amount on offer at Hoar Cross Hall, as well as their overnight stay in their luxury suite featuring two signature freestanding bathtubs – well, who wouldn't?

Phil Murphy, Managing Director at Hoar Cross Hall, commented: "We are thrilled to receive such a prestigious Rating from Good Spa Guide. We are so proud of the recent developments at Hoar Cross Hall, including our new package offering. To be named amongst other such exceptional venues, highlights the triumph our recent changes have made. This has only been made possible by our unbelievably hard-working team who strive to create the best possible experience for our guests".

The spa at Hoar Cross Hall is one of the largest in Europe. Hosting 85,000 sq. ft of facilities, it includes 42 treatment rooms, a 26-metre saltwater vitality pool, Hydrotherapy pool, Aqua Massage & Detox thermal areas, Nordic Heat and Ice Suite, as well as three relaxation areas. On top of this, facilities are constantly evolving to improve the guest offering. In recent months, an opulent new Parlour has opened, hosting twelve stations for mani-pedis and several hairdressing stations, perfect for those looking for some 'me' time.

Barons Eden have recently released brand-new spa experiences, after careful consideration from customer feedback. The new spa experiences have been created to enhance the guest journey, with the extension of spa access times and the introduction of tailor-made packages, allowing guests to truly get the most out of their day. The amount of spa stay experiences has also evolved. This will ensure guests have the most amount of time possible to soak up their beautiful surroundings and facilities.
